ENGLISH

DESCRIBING OBJECTS

Students must learn how to describe things in English, such as places, persons, and objects. To be able to meet the demands of the job market after graduation, they must arm themselves with the understanding and use of English structures and vocabulary.

They might decide to work as a salesperson, a tour guide, or even pursue writing as a profession. They will require English to operate effectively in whatever field they choose. This unit and the ones that come after it were created with this goal in mind.

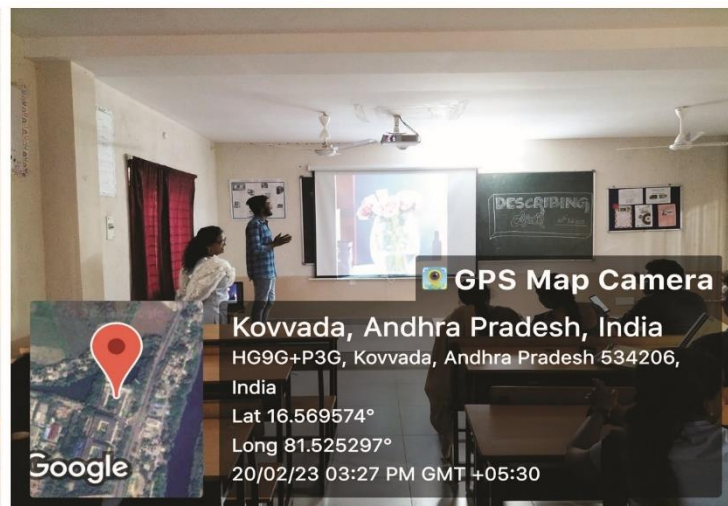

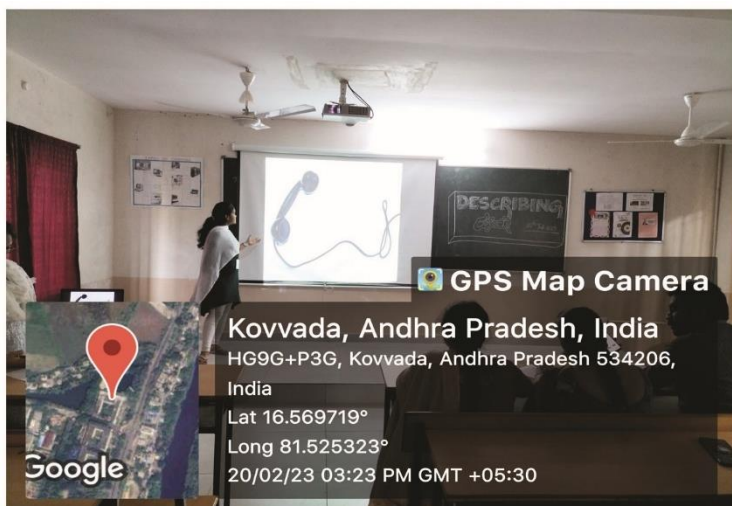

While wishing to describe anything, one must have an eye for the details. One must be a good observant of the object. Apart from that, to be able to describe well, an individual has to focus on some parts: Functions, Components, Characteristics like material, shape, dimensions, property and colour, and connection between parts. On the whole, one will develop much skills by describing an object.

As a result, an activity, describing objects was conducted for students on 20th February 2023.

OBJECTIVES:

Participating actively in Describing objects, the students are able to get benefitted the following benefits:

1. Sentence framing and language skills.
2. Vocabulary improvement.
3. Developing more familiarity with adjectives which is the most important part for describing an object.
4. Verbal skills are improved.
5. Understanding levels will be improved.
6. Logical thinking.
7. Creative thinking skills
8. Descriptive language is developed.
